Jas. M. Bearce.
James E. Harvey
David Wilson.
R. H. Turner. Prairie Bonnefemme Boonslick,

The Candidates' Agreement. The following is the plan agreed upon by the Conservative candidates of Howard county-at a meeting held in Fayette August 20th-for determining who shall be the candidates of the party at the November election-Maj. H. C. Cockerill

we agree that a poll shall be opened on the 8th day of October, 1866, at every election precint in Howard county. That each of our names shall be placed upon the poll-books in their regular order, for nomination, and that every white man in the county, above the age of 21 years, who is opposed to the doctrines of the Radical party, who has resided one year in the State of Missouri and three months in this county, and who will bind himself to support the candidates nominated for whom he shall vote, shall be allowed to vete in such nomination. We further agree that whoever shall receive the highest number of votes cast shall be declared the nominee of the Conservative party for the office to which he aspires to be elected in November next, and that each one of us will use all legal and honorable means for the election of he ticket thus nominated. not signing :

Treasurer.-We aanounce, under the proper heading, the name of John E. Ewin as a cendidate for County Treasurer of Howard county, at the election November 6th.

Pritchett Institute,-We are requested by Mr. Pritchett to state that an examination of applicants for admission to classes in Pritchett School Justitute will take place in the forenoons of Wednesday and Thursday next, September 12th and 13th. at the rooms of the Institute. Parents and guardians should take notice of this announcement The session opens next Monday week, Septem

Reduced Prices of Cigars and Smoking Tobacco. - Mr. H. C. Temple authorizes us to say that in future he will sell fine Havana cigars at 10 cents each, fine Connecticut seed cigars at 5 cents each, Wigwam smoking tobacco-bright, clear and fragrant-at 90 cents per pound, and many other brands smoking tobacco and the best brands of chewing tobacco at greatly reduced that institution. prices. He has 50,000 cigars and an unlimited quantity of smoking and chewing tobacco to be sold AT BETAIL as above, commencing Friday, September 7. His motto is "Quick sales and small profits."

Lewis High School .- Notice the advertisement of this institution in another column. Mr. Weaver has already made himself an enviable reputation here as a teacher, which we have no doubt will be added to during the session of his school just about to commence. He ought to be well Bridge across Gregg's Creck .- Mr. Alfred W. Roper has been ap pointed by the Howard County Court a Commissioner to superintend the building a new bridge across Gregg's Creek, the city mit of Glasgow on the south near the river. The sum of $800 has been appropriated for the purpose. It has been suggested that by subscription this smount should be increased to $2,000 or $2,500, and a substantial covered bridge put up. The suggestion is a good one, and we hope it will be acted on. A good bridge is cer- bers of the old bridge over Gregg's Creek, if the tainly the cheapest.

[Since the above was put in type, Mr. Roper has day, he visited the proposed site of the bridge, alty being not less than five nor more than and thinks the appropriation wholly inadequate for such a bridge as is needed there.]

Pears .- A young lady has sent us a couple dozen very deligious pears, for which she will please accept our thanks. Apparently, they were healthy fruit, and as there appeared to be no cholera in town, we repaired to a secluded corner and devoured a pair of them. We pronounce them

Mrs. S. will also please accept our thanks for present of pears, peaches and apples.

Withdrawal of W. F. Lee .- Mr. Editor: Permit me to say, through your paper, that, owing to an unexpected attack of an exceedingly painful disease, I am compelled to withdraw my name from the list of Conservative candidates for Sheriff. Glasgow, Sept. 5, 1866. WM. F. LEE.

Randolph County Fair .- Our thanks are due to the officers of Randolph County Agricultural and Mechanical Association (Geo. B. Patton, President ; W. H. Taylor, Secretary,) for an invitation to attend their tenth annual Fair, which commences, at their Fair Grounds near Huntsville, Tuesday, Sept. 25, 1866.

Anetloneers .- By the law in the New Revised Auctioneer, are required to take out a State license as follows : For ten days, $10; thirty days, $20; six months, $75. The fine for selling, as an auctioneer, without a license, is $500.

Chariton County Union .- We unintentionally neglected last week to acknowledge the receipt of a new paper with the above title, published at Keytesville, in our neighboring county of Chariton, by Wm. Maynard. It is neatly printed, and edited with spirit-Radical in politics. This is about all that need be said of it.

Audrain County Fair .- Dr. W. D. H. Hunter, Secretary of the Audrain County Agricultural and Mechanical Association, for a complimentery ticket to the Fair of the Association for 1866, to be held on the Fair Grounds near Mexico, will please accept our thanks.

Bishop Boggett.-The Christian Union Church of Illinois, numbering 6000, have invited Bishop Doggett to preside at their Convention to be held - on the 12th of September, with a view of connecting themselves with the Episcopal Methodist Church.

The First Story of the wall of the Harrison Mill, which was burned here on the 7th ult., will be saved, it being uninjured by the fire, as also the large, and tall chimney of the building. This will greatly facilitate the rebuilding of this valuable mill, and we hope soon again to hear the pleasant rumble of its wheels. St. Louis Bry Goods House .- Attention is di rected to the advertisement of the extensive wholesale and retail dry goods house of Messrs. Hardon Tuller & Co., Nos. 406 and 408 North Fifth st., St. Louis. Their stock is represented to be very large, and they commenced the fall trade with the view of closing out their stock at once in order to make way for new stock before the season closes column, of Messrs. Miller & Brother, No. 121

Death of Mr. Z. C. Hughes .- It is with 'pain that we appounce the demise of an old and highly esteemed citizen of Ho ward (more recently, how ever, of Randolph) Mr. Z. Courtney Hughes, who died, of cancer, at Huntsville, on Sept. 1st, 1866. For some months past, the had been residing in Louisville, Keatucky, under treatment of a Dr. Couden, and his letters to his friends here inspired the hope that he was receiving permanent benefits. No alarm as to his critical state was excited even among those nearest him, till his arrival in Huntsville, some two weeks ago, when he commenced o grow worse, which continued till death relieved him of suffering. Up to the time of his leaving Louisville he was encouraged, by the physician named, with the idea that he was perma-

About ten years ago-as we learn from his relatives here-Mr. Hughes observed a slight abrasion of the skin on the right side of his face, which, though not painful, was soon detected as incipient cancer. This, however, was never seriously troublesome; and it was not till last Deember, when the dread disease broke out on the right side of his neck, or throat, that the symptoms began to be alarming. As this grew worse -which it did quite rapidly-he sought medical advice, in St. Louis and Philadelphia, of the most eminent physicians, but received no encouragement, and was only advised to return home and prepare for death. By some means, however, he was induced to place himself under the treatment

Mr. Hughes was, we may say, a native of Howard county, having arrived here when only three years of age. He was universally esteemed for his excellent qualities as a christian gentlemen. For about nine months he had been associated with Mesers, C. & W. M. Wisdom, of Huntsville, in the banking business, for which he had removed his place of residence to that town. He was 51 years of age. He was burned at the family burying ground near the residence of his mother, four miles from Glasgow.

City Council .- The City Council of the City of Glasgow held its regular meeting Tuesday evening, Sept. 4, Messrs. Mayor Digges, Roper, Morgan, Chamberlain, Baier and Williams being present.

Boonsboro' Postoffice .- A petition has been sent on to Washington with the names of 400 petitioners for the establishment of a Postoffice a Boonsboro', in this county. We sincerely hope that a petition, so numerously and respectably endorsed as this, will receive attention. Several previous applications for the office were unsuccessful; but the arrangements now made are such that the enterprise cannot fail. A gentleman has agreed to undertake the carrying of the mail for that point at the Government price, and the deficit in the cost will, we learn, be made up by the citizens of the neighborhood. It takes so much money to buy rations for the lazy niggers that the extension of mail facilities has to be neglected. Although the people of Boonsboro' and vicinity have been for years without a Postoffice, we venture to say the tax-gatherer has never failed to make his annual lemands upon them.

In some localities I heard rumors of secret organizations pointing to a renewal of the rebellion. On investigating these secret societies I could discover in them nothing more than charitable institutions, having for their principal object the relief of the widows and orphans of the Confederate soldiers who had fallen in the war.

During the whole of my travels I found it to be as safe and as convenient to mingle with the people of the South, freely discussing any and every topic that came up, as in any other section of the United States. I was often among them unknown, and the tenor of their acts and conversation was then the same as when my name and official position were thoroughly understood.

Mr. Blow made a violent inflammatory, forked lightning, sulphur brimstone and nitro-glycerine speech at Corondelet, last Saturday night. It seemed to mean, and was generally supposed to mean, fire, carnage, blood and red death.

But Mr. Blow published a card, Friday, in the Democrat stating that he didn't mean that. He didn't mean what he said. He didn't mean anything of consequence.

Very glad to hear it. But Mr. Blow should be a little more careful. He is a member of Congress, and a great man, and should speak with the gravity and deliberation which become great men. If he continues to talk like a blate-rakite, people will take him for a blatherakite.—St. Louis Discretch Sect. 1
